Fifth Sunday of Lent

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Students did a wonderful job participating in our St. Patrick Day Mass on Wednesday. We have focused on the lives of the Saints in our Religion curriculum this year. Presently we are praying a Novena to St. Patrick in the morning and afternoon, led by the students. Grades four through eight attended the young People's Concert on Thursday at Power's Auditorium. Thank you to the Hubbard Police Department for their presentation to our third grade students on Seat Belt Safety this past week. Our eighth grade sponsored a dance this past Friday, fun had by all. Welcome Spring!

Love and prayers,
Cindy Lacko

I wonder how many of you saw us on Channel 27, St. Patrick's Day. The camera man set up in front of the church with the statue of St. Patrick behind me. It gave good exposure and public relations for the city, our church, and school.

This weekend's Gospel is all about forgiveness and not being judgmental. It, of course, was about the woman caught in adultery. I'd sure like to know where the guy went. Why didn't he get the same sentencing as the woman?

God, our all loving and forgiving Father, thank you for always forgiving me and please help me not to be judgmental towards others. Help me to be as loving, accepting, and forgiving with others as You are with me.
Amen.

Your loving pastor,
Fr. Tim
