CATHOLIC SCHOOL EDCHOICE SCHOLARSHIP

UNIVERSAL EDCHOICE SCHOLARSHIP

Every Ohio student in grades K-12 is now eligible for an EdChoice Scholarship that can be used toward Catholic School tuition beginning with the upcoming 2023–2024 school year. This will include currently enrolled children as well as any new student beginning their Catholic School experience this fall.

A full EdChoice Scholarship of $6,165 for elementary and $8,407 for high school is available for any family at or below 450% of the federal poverty level (ex. $135,000 for a family of four). A decreasing pro-rated amount dependent on a family's economic status over 450% of the poverty level is then available, but the LEAST any child can receive is $650 for an elementary student and $950 for a high school student.

As soon as information on how to apply is available, families will be notified. Please stay tuned for more information regarding this exciting opportunity. doy.org

"AS SEEN ON TV . . ."

A teacher at an elementary school asked her students to write an essay about what they would like to be. At home that evening, while grading the essays, the teacher read one student's essay that made her start to cry. Her husband walked in just at that moment. "What's wrong?" "Read this. It's one of my students' essays." The husband sat down and read: "I would like to be a television set. I want to take its place and live like the TV in my house. I would have my own special place, and have my family around me. They would take me seriously when I talk. I would be the center of attention and people would listen to me without interruption or questions. "I want to get the same special care the TV set receives even when it is not working. I would have the company of my dad when he arrives home from work, even when he is tired. And I want my mom to want me when she is sad and upset instead of ignoring me. And I want my brothers to fight to be with me. "I want my family to just leave everything aside, every now and then, just to spend some time with me. And last but not least, I want them all to be happy and entertain them. I just want to live like a TV."

The husband looked up. "That poor kid. What horrible parents!" The wife looked at him and said, "That essay is our son's."

[Reprinted with permission of Bits & Pieces, Ragan Communications.]

This mom and dad discover to their dismay that the love and relationship they are trying to nurture in their home is being "choked" by the "thorns" of so many hours in front of the television and "withering" by a lack of attention or care for one another. Christ calls us to model the sower of today's Gospel within our own homes and households: to sow seeds of encouragement, joy and reconciliation in the "earth" of our own "gardens" and doing the patient work of realizing the harvest God has promised, to trust and believe that our simplest acts of kindness and forgiveness, our humblest offers of help and affirmation may be the "seed" that re-creates and transforms our homes and hearts.

Wood panels are being installed to the right and left of the sanctuary area.

PSR TEACHERS NEEDED FOR 2023-2024

We are so blessed to have such a great Parish School of Religion staff. Our teachers come week after week 9:30 -10:45 AM with a prepared lesson plan and better yet...a smile on their faces. Their love for the children is exciting...always going above and beyond as they "echo" the heart of Jesus.

For the school year 2023-2024, we will need 2 teachers for kindergarten and 1 teacher for 4th grade. We always welcome high school students that wish to be catechist aides. Parents who offer to be a catechist or aide will receive free tuition for their children. If you feel God calling you to come and help in this ministry, please call Karen Bartos, 330-534-1928, for more information.

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

With God's help we are hopeful that this year's festival will be a great success. We are so blessed to have a parish with so many people willing to offer their time, talent, and treasure with a joyful heart every year. It literally takes an army of volunteers to run a festival from start to finish. If you have already signed up to volunteer at this year's festival, thank you very much. Or, if you are interested in volunteering at this year's festival, please contact the church office or email Karen Bartos, the volunteer coordinator, at Karen.k.bartos@gmail.com. "All are welcome to help."

In today's world it is easy to forget that we are not only members of a national family, but also members of a faith family. Sometimes the greatest witness for Jesus Christ is a warm smile and the hand of a sincere friendship. I hope you, as members of our parish family, will extend an invitation and a warm welcome to all our neighbors and family members who might join us at this year's festival.

In the words of the song, "We Are Many Parts" by Marty Haugen, the spirituality of stewardship is summed up in a beautiful way...

*"We are many parts, we are all one body and the gifts we have, we are given to share.
May the spirit of love make us one indeed."*

God bless, Deacon John

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit." - Matthew 13:22

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in earthly activities that you have no time for God? Gratitude and generosity are virtues that we should strive to do on a daily basis. Every decision we make either takes us one step closer to God or one step further away. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week as well.
