AROUND THE TABLE

Very Rev. Michael A. Swierz, Pastor

Second Sunday of Advent

Dear Friends,

*A voice of one crying out in the desert: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths."
John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.
Mark 1: 1-8*

CHRISTMAS WISHES

All she wants for Christmas is for her child to come home. She's the mother of a military service man or woman deployed in one of the many dangerous locales around the world. "Peace on earth" is her constant prayer.

His Christmas wish is to be reunited with his wife and son. For several months now they have been making the long, dangerous trek from their home in Venezuela to the United States. He came here two years ago to make enough money to send for them. Since they left, his life has been one long Advent of waiting and hoping that they arrive here safely.

Her only wish this Christmas is to have the energy to celebrate the holidays. This past year she's been undergoing treatment for an aggressive form of cancer. She has no illusions of expecting a miracle; she's not looking for a wonder drug. All she wants is to be able to be with her family, trim the tree, sing the songs, wrap the gifts, set up the family creche, and go to Christmas Mass again. All she asks is to make one more journey to Bethlehem.

We all want different things at Christmas. While some of us want to get through it on time with as little damage to our credit cards as possible, John the Baptizer challenges us to seek more from the Messiah's coming: a renewed sense of gratitude for the love, reconciliation with those from whom we are estranged; moving beyond the despair and brokenness in our lives to hope and wholeness; re-centering our lives on the things that give joy and fulfillment. May the next two weeks be about the work of Advent begun by John: to make a "way" of peace and hope for God to enter our homes and hearts in every place and season, to help one another realize their deepest Christmas wishes.

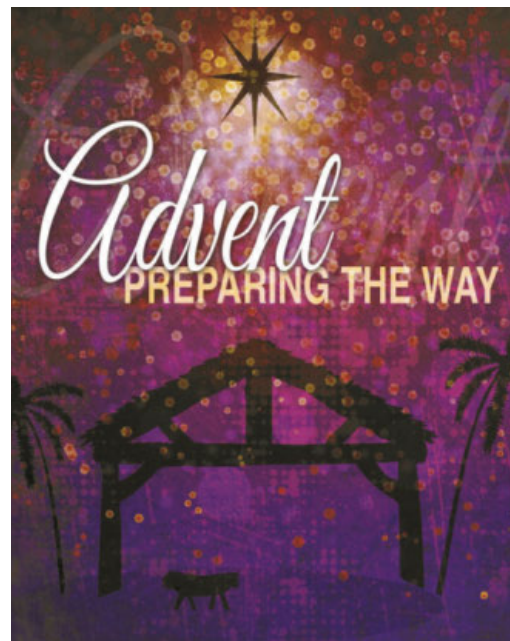

This weekend our second graders preparing for their First Holy Communion will celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the very first time. As they thought about what might happen this Sunday, they may have experienced emotions of apprehension, nervousness, fear and wonder. Their fear is normal when we have to share with other persons our missed opportunities for love, forgiveness and honesty. Our world tells us over and over we have to be number one and that money, riches, strength and power are the road to success. Through it all, our parents try to stress the importance of making good choices, to get along with others and not to bully others. Our catechists, along with our deacons and myself teach that God is love and to serve others; God chooses the weak and makes them strong; God will always walk with us so don't be afraid.

As adults we hear the message of St. John the Baptist crying out, "Prepare the Way of the Lord". This advent season we are called to be ready, watchful and alert. We are called to have hope and live in peace. In the busyness of this Advent season I hope we can turn away from the anger, fear and the hurts of years gone by to learn from our past but to live for the future. If we are not awake or alert, God's presence and that grace-filled moment can pass us by. I pray that you celebrate the Baptist's words, "Prepare the Way of the Lord".

Thanks to all who have generously bought gifts for those in need. The Angel Tree, or Sharing Tree, is a beautiful tradition which celebrates this season of giving.

Next Sunday is Bambinelli Sunday. If possible, please bring the Infant Jesus from your Christmas crib or manger scene for a special blessing, linking church to home.

Thanks to all who will support the Altar & Rosary Christmas Bake Sale. I know they appreciate your generosity.

Until we gather around the table, Fr. Mike

WELCOME TO ST. PAT'S!

We are glad you could join us.

We welcome you. And even more importantly,

Jesus welcomes you.

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

It was only a few weeks ago that our Christmas Angel Tree was put up in the vestibule of our church. Shortly thereafter, the tree was decorated with angel ornaments. Each angel represented a child who will receive a gift from one of our parishioners. The parishioners were invited to take an angel from the tree after Mass. The tree was empty after only a few Masses!

The tree was re-decorated with more angels several times with the same result. Last week I watched gift after gift come into church until the kitchen was filled. The biggest blessing that I received was the immense joy I observed on the joy-filled faces of the people who brought the gifts.

Stewardship, in part, is the sharing of our joy with others. We as a parish do that exceptionally well. I would like to thank the Angel Tree Team for their dedication to this beautiful ministry and for the many hours they spent in preparation. I would also like to thank the generous stewards who give of their time, talent, and treasure with a joyful heart.

God bless,
Deacon John

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"Prepare the way of the Lord..." - MARK 1:3

We are all called to live a holy life. We are all called to invite others to live holy lives. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, puts us on the path to holiness and is an example for others to be holy, too. We are responsible not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. How are you helping others get to Heaven?
