Very Rev. Michael A. Swierz, Pastor

Third Sunday of Advent

Dear Friends,

[John came] to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him . . . "I am the voice of one crying out in the desert, make straight the way of the Lord." —John 1: 6-8, 19-28

"BLESSED TREE OF LIGHT AND KINDNESS"

Many wonderful stories and legends surround the tradition of the Christmas tree. One such legend, from Germany, recounts the story of St. Boniface, the eight-century English monk who brought the Gospel to Germany. In one version of the story, on the night of December 24, Boniface and his monks came upon a giant oak tree, sacred to the pagan God Odin. Each year on the darkest night of the year, worshippers would gather at this sacred tree to sacrifice a young child to Odin. The people believed that the child would travel to Valhalla and present the people's praise and prayers to Odin.

Boniface was horrified. According to the legend, Boniface seized an axe and, with one blow, brought down the giant oak. The people were terrified, certain that the gods would strike Boniface dead. Boniface was prepared to pay with his life for felling the sacred tree. But nothing happened. In that moment, the worshipers realized that their gods were powerless, nonexistent. Boniface then began to preach the Gospel of God's coming as a child. He then pointed to a nearby fir tree. "This little tree, a young child of the forest, shall be your holy tree tonight. It is the wood of peace. It is the sign of endless life, for its leaves are ever green. See how it points to heaven. Let this be called the tree of the Christ Child; gather about it, not in the wild wood, but in your own homes; there it will shelter no deeds of blood, but loving gifts and rites of kindness."

The German tribes embraced Boniface's words that Christmas Eve and began decorating their homes with evergreen, which became a symbol of the constant love of God for them in every season.

Let St. Boniface's words be a blessing upon our family's Christmas tree this holiday season. May our Christmas trees, like Boniface's "home tree," be our first planting this new year of a new attitude and vision of kindness, compassion and reconciliation; may its lights continue to illuminate the "highway" we can create for the God's Christ to enter homes and hearts in every season of every year.

Today is traditionally called Gaudete Sunday, from the Latin of the entrance antiphon for today. The antiphon captures the mood of the entire celebration of Mass today as we move into the second part of Advent. Today, there is a sense of joyful expectation, an awareness that the fulfillment of God's great plan for us is near. Thus, we light the rose candle in the Advent wreath and wear rose colored vestments for the Mass.

As Christians, we live our lives like John the Baptist, waiting patiently while actively striving to live our faith, preparing a way for Christ to enter our lives, our homes and our world.

A special thanks to those who set up our outdoor nativity scene. How wonderful that we have the opportunity to remind our community and all who pass by the church grounds, the true meaning of this holy Season of Christmas.

As you ride around town, the care that so many put into decorating their homes in so many different ways gives us a sense of joy. As you attend various Christmas programs or concerts, especially those of children, it fills us with a sense of joy in the simple, yet powerful gift we celebrate during this time of the year. Joy is the word of the day. Rejoice. Gaudete. Glad tidings. This experience of joy is not just a word, but the word, "joy" for us Christians comes to life when we realize the work that we were anointed for. We are called to minister to the needs of one another, remember the sick, the poor, the forgotten, to teach our young, to celebrate all the different ministries of our community. That is what brings us joy, working with one another, family and friends and worshipping with one another to build the Kingdom. What greater joy is there than this?

Until we gather around the table, Fr. Mike

Come Home For Christmas!

Find what you're missing!

We warmly welcome all who come to celebrate the glorious feast of Christmas. We welcome the stranger, the traveler and guest! We welcome our students home from college for a good winter's rest!

We welcome parishioners who moved far away but join us today as old friends and guests! We welcome all who have not been active of late in their Catholic faith, and hope they will find new hope and inspiration this Christmas to come back again and again! We welcome our faithful parishioners, loyal and true. May the Lord bless you for all you do!

Welcome to all! May our gathering gladden our hearts and deepen our bonds. We are, after all, one people of God redeemed by the light that is Christ. May we walk by the Light and live by the Light, together in love.

Congratulations to our 2nd graders who celebrated the Sacrament of First Reconciliation last Sunday. May they always be close to our merciful Savior, Jesus!

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

It always excites me when I see that a new ministry begins in our parish. Fr. Mike always reminds me that these ministries are always inspired by the Holy Spirit, and to me, that's even more exciting! One of the newest ministries within our parish is the St. Michael and St. Florian (Veterans and First Responders) Group. I attended the first meeting on December 5th and I was amazed at the great attendance as well as the wonderful conversation. I can not wait until our next meeting, which will most likely include some good food too.

I would like to reach out to all our veterans and first responders to plan to attend our January meeting. I believe you will not be disappointed. My good friend, Fr. Johnson, always told me that when you have a meeting in church and when it is completed, sometimes no one wants to leave after the meeting. He said that is good because no one wants to walk away from the presence of the Holy Spirit. This is what we all experienced at our inaugural meeting. So, please mark your calendars to join us for our next meeting on Tuesday, January 9th at 6:00 PM in room 208 of the school. We look forward to seeing you.

Love,

Deacon John

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus." – 1 THESSALONIANS 5:16 - 18

This scripture reading sums up Stewardship. "Rejoice always" means place your trust in God; He will provide all that you need. "Pray constantly" means prayer should be a running conversation with God throughout the whole day, every day. "Give thanks in all circumstances" means even in bad situations, thank God. Suffering a little bit helps build empathy for others in similar situations and shows our dependence on God.

Weekend Collection For December 9/10, 2023
