The Epiphany of the Lord

Dear Friends,

[The magi] were overjoyed at seeing the star and on entering the house, they saw the child and his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. —Matthew 2: 1-12

PAYING HOMAGE IN BETHLEHEM

The ancient texts they studied pointed them in the direction of the country of the Jews. They searched the heavens as the sages indicated. Then, gathering precious gifts, they set out to find this king that God had raised up. The journey naturally took them to Jerusalem, the sophisticated capital city of Judaism — but the king they encountered there was the antithesis of the king they were searching for. They were redirected to Bethlehem, a small village a few miles — and another world — away. There they found the place they were looking for: a tired young mom and her little boy playing peacefully.

In their hearts they knew they had found who they were looking for. The prophecies were fulfilled. They had followed the right star. These men — the wisest of the wise of their time — shook the dust off their boots and robes and entered the small dwelling. Humbly, they presented their gifts to the child — offerings that foretold the life that lay before this boy. What was missing in the courts of the powerful in the city they found in a hovel in that village: humility, compassion, peace — and hope.

God had entered human history as a vulnerable, happy child. And they were wise enough to realize the divine in their midst. And they did him homage.

We, too, seek God — but, more often than not, we find him in unexpected places. We insist on looking in great cathedrals, when God is present in a hospital room; we are swept up in great displays of power but fail to see God's hand at work with the farmer bringing his vegetables to harvest; we are moved to tears by a magnificent oratorio but are deaf to God's joy in a giggling child. In the year ahead, may we seek God in the Bethlehems we travel and work to bring our Bethlehems' simple peace, uncomplicated justice and blessed compassion to our Jerusalems and centers of power. Let us bow in gratitude before the gift of bread on our tables; before babies; before ocean waves, sunrises and sunsets; before the poor, the vulnerable and marginalized; before all that is good and holy. For there is God, among us, in our Bethlehems.

Our celebration of Christmas continues with today's Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. We hear how the Magi from the east followed the star to Bethlehem where they found the Holy Family. Like the Magi, we are to follow the light of faith as we have entered into a whole new year. The light of faith which we follow brings us to Jesus and a faith where we experience and bring His peace, joy, mercy, justice, charity, forgiveness and love into our life and share it with others.

The traditional blessing of homes is enclosed in the bulletin for you and your family to pray and place above the main doorway of your home, so that as the three wise men searched for the Lord by the guidance of a star, you too, going forth from your home will seek Christ and bring Christ to the lives you touch.

January 7 marks the celebration of Christmas for Orthodox Christians. We pray that they, like us, will rejoice in the birth of the Messiah.

I want to also thank all who generously donated gifts to the Angel Tree. Your kindness helped so many families in the community and valley. Thank you.

As we look back on the Advent and Christmas season, I want to thank all who made this special time a prayerful and meaningful experience of liturgy, community and parish life.

On behalf of our whole parish staff,

May God bless us young and old with health and happiness throughout the New Year and

Until we gather around the table,

Fr. Mike

HOUSE BLESSINGS

20 † C † M † B † 24

May Christ Bless This Dwelling Place.

Epiphany (also known as Twelfth Night, Theophany, or Three Kings Day) marks the occasion of a time-honored Christian tradition of "chalking the door." You will find inserted in this week's bulletin, a house blessing card for your "chalking of the door". You can take it and place above any entrance of your home: 20 + C + M + B + 24. The letters have two meanings. First, they represent the initials of the Magi — Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar— who came to visit Jesus in His first home. They also abbreviate the Latin phrase, Christus mansionem benedicat: "May Christ bless the house." The "+" signs represent the cross, and the "20" at the beginning and the "24" at the end mark the year. Taken together, this inscription is performed as a request for Christ to bless those homes so marked and that He stay with those who dwell therein throughout the entire year. The chalking of the doors is a centuries-old practice throughout the world, though it appears to be somewhat less well-known in the United States. It is, however, an easy tradition to adopt, and a great practice whereby we dedicate our year to God from its very outset, asking His blessing on our homes and on all who live, work, or visit them there. The timing for the chalking of the doors varies somewhat in practice. This prayer may be prayed on the traditional Feast of the Epiphany — the Twelfth Day of Christmas. Most often, the chalking takes place after Epiphany Mass, and can be done at any church, home, or dwelling.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

We celebrate the Baptism of the Lord on Monday, January 8, 2024. This feast closes our season of Christmas.

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of His sandals. I have baptized you with water; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." —Mk 1:7-8

PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

"For out of you shall come forth a ruler who will shepherd My people." Is Christ calling you forth out of your comfort zone to serve Him in others as a sister, brother, or priest? Talk to your priest or reach out to Fr. Chad Johnson at cjohnson@youngstowndiocese.org or (330) 744-8451.

2024 EPIPHANY PROCLAMATION

The proclamation of the date of Easter and the other moveable feasts on Epiphany dates from a time when calendars were not readily available. It was necessary to make known the date of Easter in advance, since many celebrations of the liturgical year depend on its date. The number of Sundays that follow Epiphany, the date of Ash Wednesday, and the number of Sundays that follow Pentecost are all computed in relation to Easter.

Although calendars now give the date of Easter and the other feasts in the liturgical year for many years in advance, the Epiphany proclamation still has value. It is a reminder of the centrality of the resurrection of the Lord in the liturgical year and the importance of the great mysteries of faith which are celebrated each year.

Know, dear brothers and sisters, that, as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, so by leave of God's mercy we announce to you also the joy of His Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the fourteenth day of February will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the fast of the most sacred Lenten season.

On the thirty-first day of March you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the twelfth day of May will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the nineteenth day of May, the feast of Pentecost.

On the second day of June, the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

On the first day of December, the First Sunday of the Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom is honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

In St. Paul's letter to the Ephesians, he tells us that "We are stewards of God's grace and are co-partners in the promise of Jesus through the Gospel." (Ephesians 13:2-3)

To be true stewards of God's grace we must understand not only the grace given to every believer, but also the unique gifting and calling of the Holy Spirit for each of us.

We each are in Christ and should cultivate our place of service to Him. When this becomes real to us, the importance of the various positions to serve the Body of Christ will become easier for us to recognize.

Each of us has received a gift, a particular spiritual talent, a gracious divine endowment to use as God's faithful stewards. May God continue to bless our parish and our families with His abundant grace in the New Year.

God bless,
Deacon John

FROM THE DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN MASS FOR LIFE

The annual diocesan Mass for Life will take place on Sunday, January 14, 2024 at 4:00 pm in St. Columba Cathedral, celebrated by Most. Rev. David J. Bonnar, Bishop of Youngstown. There will be a blessing of unborn children and their families. A reception including information on Walking with Moms in Need. Donations will be accepted.

DIOCESAN COMMUNICATIONS COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND—JANUARY 6/7, 2024

Your gift to the Diocesan Communications Collection supports programs like Wineskins, The Catholic Echo podcast, televised Masses, the Catholic Echo magazine and website, diocesan social media and even many of the announcements you see in the bulletin. All of these initiatives, and future ones, are geared toward informing and engaging you. To support these initiatives (or future ones), please give to the Communications Collection on January 6 & 7, 2024.

SHARING OUR TREASURE

Epiphany of the Lord

"They fell down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." - MATTHEW 2:11

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts. We, too, must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!

LEAVE A LEGACY—REMEMBER YOUR CHURCH IN YOUR ESTATE PLANNING.

Have you ever wondered if anyone ever does this?

The simple answer is yes. The church has received many generous bequests from a number of estates over the years. Many Catholics have determined that they wish to provide for the church through a gift from their estate. Contact Deacon John Bartos at the parish house, 330-534-1928.
