AROUND THE TABLE

Very Rev. Michael A. Swierz, Pastor

Second Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

John was standing with two of his disciples, and as they watched Jesus walk by, he said, "Behold the Lamb of God . . ." [John's two disciples] said to [Jesus], "Rabbi" – which translated means "Teacher" – "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." John 1: 35-42

"Come, and you will see . . ."

"Teacher, where are you staying?"

I am sleeping under the bridge with the homeless who have no one, who have no place.

I am sitting at the same table with the poor kid no one wants anything to do with.

I am watching TV with the elderly couple who lives alone.

I am holding the young woman who is terrified of the surgery she is facing.

I am with your children when you are not there. I am with your spouse when you are apart.

I am with you when you're feeling lost and alone.

I am putting my shoulder to yours in bearing your crosses of illness, despair and catastrophe.

Where am I staying?

Come, and you will see.

"We have found the Messiah," Andrew says to his brother Peter (and Philip says to his friend Nathaniel) – and if we're paying attention, we realize that we encounter God's Christ in every individual who enables the sick and broken to find healing and wholeness, who helps the grieving and despairing to rebuild their lives, who lifts the poor and desperate out of their debilitating poverty. We've encountered God's Christ in every act of forgiveness, in every effort at reconciling with those who are lost and forgotten, in every unheralded, unremarkable act of selfless generosity and humble compassion. If we look hard enough, if we look humbly enough, we encounter Christ walking among us as members of our family, friends and parish. We discover the Messiah "staying" within our own homes and hearts. We realize that we are made complete and whole in the presence in Emmanuel – "God is with us."

I ask you to keep in your prayers St. Pat's eighth grade Confirmation class, who spent the day reflecting on their spiritual journey preparing them for the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation on April 13, 2024 at St. Columba Cathedral.

Next weekend, Sunday, January 21, 2024, beginning at 9:30 am, you are welcome to attend our Festival of Faith, which includes adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, reflection on the Holy Rosary, the Beatitudes, crafts for children and much more. Stop over to the school and spend the morning celebrating our faith.

Also at our weekend celebration of Holy Mass on January 20-21, we will celebrate the Sunday of the Word of God. In preparation for this celebration and the importance of the Sacred Scriptures I offer to you this reflection taken from the Introduction to the Lectionary for Mass.

In the hearing of God's word the Church is built up and grows, and in the signs of the liturgical celebration God's wonderful, past works in the history of salvation are presented anew as mysterious realities. God in turn makes use of the congregation of the faithful that celebrates the Liturgy in order that His word may speed on and be glorified and that His name be exalted among the nations.

Whenever, therefore, the Church, gathered by the Holy Spirit for liturgical celebration, announces and proclaims the word of God, she is aware of being a new people in whom the covenant made in the past is perfected and fulfilled. Baptism and confirmation in the Spirit have made all Christ's faithful into messengers of God's word because of the grace of hearing they have received. They must therefore be the bearers of the same word in the Church and in the world, at least by the witness of their lives.

The word of God proclaimed in the celebration of God's mysteries does not only address present conditions but looks back to past events and forward to what is yet to come. Thus God's word shows us what we should hope for with such a longing that in this changing world our hearts will be set on the place where our true joys lie.

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God." (Colossians 3:16)

Until we gather around the table,

Fr. Mike

WELCOME TO ST. PAT'S!

We welcome you. And even more importantly,

Jesus welcomes you.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH FAMILY ON THE THIRD ANNIVERSARY OF THE FIRE IN OUR CHURCH

Loving God, be with our parish as we wait for the completion of the rebuilding of our church building after the fire of January 18, 2021. Teach us patience that we will experience the joy of worshipping you again very soon in our beautiful church building. We give you thanks for providing us with the parish center, our "tent", where we can be together in our parish life, where we have found that it's not the building, but the people, our parish family, using every opportunity to give glory and praise to You, by our worship and ministry in the community.

PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

"Come, and you will see." How are you being called to come and see how you can build up the kingdom of God as His co-worker? Consider the generous service of priesthood or consecrated life. Talk to your priest or reach out to Fr. Chad Johnson at cjohnson@youngstowndiocese.org or (330) 744-8451.

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

On January 18, 2024, we will reach the third anniversary of our church fire and soon we will rejoice in the reopening of our beautiful St. Patrick Church. Fr. Mike has done a remarkable job leading us through this challenging time in our church history.

My father once told me that in challenging times, sometimes the worst in people can be revealed, but, more often it will bring out the absolute best in people. The latter is true of the people of our parish. We, the people of St. Patrick, never for an instance lost our passion, perseverance or hope in our future. The Lord has truly walked with us every step of the way. As I continue to serve you as your Director of Stewardship, I would like to thank everyone in our parish who give their time, talent, and treasure with joyful hearts.

"I know the plans I have for you ...plans for goodness, plans for peace and life. From age to age, parent to child, I give you a future, I give you a future full of hope."
(Text: Jeremiah 29: 11-15; Vince Ambrosetti)

Love and thanks,
Deacon John

DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN MASS FOR LIFE

The annual diocesan Mass for Life will take place on TODAY—Sunday, January 14, 2024 at 4:00 pm in St. Columba Cathedral, celebrated by Most. Rev. David J. Bonnar, Bishop of Youngstown. There will be a blessing of unborn children and their families. A reception including information on Walking with Moms in Need. Donations will be accepted.

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'" - JOHN 1:38

When we recognize who we are, it's easier to find what we are looking for. Once we see ourselves, and others, as children of God, we spend less time looking for the material comforts of the world. Instead, our hearts long for something deeper that can only be filled by God. Ask God daily how He wants you to live the life He intended for you.
