AROUND THE TABLE

Very Rev. Michael A. Swierz, Pastor

Third Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God . .
As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, [Jesus] saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."
Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. —Mark 1: 14-20

IT MAY NOT BE PRETTY, BUT HE CAN TEACH . . .

It's the first day of the fall semester. First-year college students take seats in the lecture hall for their first class in Biology 101. The professor welcomes everyone and calls the roll. He distributes the syllabus and explains the course material, the assignments, and his grading policies. The students find him engaging and approachable. Everything's off to a good start. But before he begins the day's lecture, the professor says this: "One more thing before we get started. "During the semester, when we meet for lecture or lab work, there will be times when I will stumble. I will slur words. It may take me a while to get the words out when answering your questions. I will fumble with my notes. I'll have to stop now and then because of a tremor in my hand or leg. And, in all probability, you'll have trouble deciphering my handwriting — don't hesitate to ask me to decode. You won't offend me. "I have Parkinson's Disease. I've been living with Parkinson's for the past five years. It's a challenge, but it hasn't stopped me from teaching — and it shouldn't stop you from learning. "So don't worry. I'm O.K. It's a struggle — but I'm coping. I can still teach this subject that I love."

This professor could retire from teaching, of course, and avoid the awkwardness and the embarrassment, the stares and the frightened looks on his students' faces. But he loves what he does — he's good at it and he loves the students he teaches. He refuses to give an inch to Parkinson's. So he "abandons the nets" of others' expectations, his own doubts and fears of criticism, his own safe "boat" to continue to use the skills and gifts God has given him: the ability to teach. To follow Christ means "abandoning our nets" of self-interest to embrace the needs of others; Jesus calls us to follow him along the difficult path of selfless compassion and humble generosity. That's the challenge of the disciple's call: to find our life's fulfillment in using our skills and knowledge for the common good rather than for personal profit or fame; to seek reconciliation and forgiveness when the rest of the world demands vengeance and settling the score; to see Christ in the faces of everyone we meet.

On this Third Sunday in Ordinary Time Pope Francis established this weekend as the Sunday of the Word of God. All of us as church are called to rediscover the importance of the Sacred Scripture in our life. Most of us hear and pray the Word of God at our celebration of Holy Mass. Some reflect and pray through the Scripture at home or Bible study. Sad to say some don't understand the importance of the Scripture, pay no attention to it at Mass and have never opened up a Bible. Today's celebration focuses on why the Scriptures are necessary in our life as Christians. Our Holy Father reminds us, "It is fitting then that the life of our people be constantly marked by this decisive relationship with the living word that the Lord never tires of speaking to His Bride, that she may grow in love and faithfulness." The Scriptures themselves tell us that the Word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword. (Hebrews 4:12) This tells us that first, God wants to speak to us, and second, as we listen we grow in our fullest potential. How can we attempt to grow in appreciation of the Scriptures? Listen to the readings at Mass. Think about them all week long. There are so many resources available, especially Formed.org, which all of you have access to. Bible study, holy hour, and personal private prayer are all ways for you to listen to the voice of God speaking to you.

As we celebrate today, may you open your life to hear His voice speaking to you.

Until we gather around the table,

Fr. Mike

WELCOME TO ST. PAT'S!

We are glad you could join us.

We welcome you. And even more importantly,

Jesus welcomes you.

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

"See how much the Father has loved us! His love is so great that we are called God's children – and so, in fact, we are." ~ 1 John 3:1

Children are a gift, a joy, a blessing, a challenge, and a responsibility all rolled up into one. In a sense, they themselves are a gift of stewardship and we as parents are entrusted to teach them and guide them in the way of our Lord.

Everything belongs to God, our Creator, including our children and our very lives. Therefore, we are to be good stewards of this incredibly good gift God has entrusted to us. How do we go about our daily lives to be good stewards and models of faith for our children?

Today our children are faced with an overload of advertisements that only confuse them about who they are, are they good enough, what you really need to be happy. Each child needs to know that they are a masterpiece – God loves them and accepts them just as they are. We can also help them to understand the difference between needs and wants and help them to concentrate on their blessings. We can be the best examples of virtues such as patience, forgiveness, and gratitude. As parents we can emphasize spiritual direction through daily Scripture, through attending weekly Mass and receiving His Body and Blood in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

But there is MORE! We are so excited to welcome you to THE CATHOLIC PARENT, a video series for Catholic parents created by Catholic parents. See the bulletin on page 5 for access on our parish app called FORMED. You can access it simply by scanning the QR code on your phone too. I think this will be an amazing feature to help all of us embrace our calling to parenthood and stewardship alike.

Blessings to all,

Karen Bartos, C.R.E.

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men."

- MARK 1:17

Jesus' call to "follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule, but that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

FROM THE DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

CHURCH OVERSEAS COMBINED COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND—JANUARY 27-28, 2024

Catholics around the country have always responded to the needs of people everywhere. Next weekend, the Diocese of Youngstown will hold the Church Overseas Combined Collection in order to assist the Church in its ministries throughout the world. This combined collection supports four major overseas services: Catholic Relief Services (CRS), Holy Father/Peter's Pence, the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, and the Church in Latin America. Please remember, as we move toward the season of Lent, to support these important programs of charity in the Church.

2024 DIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL

"Repent and believe in the Gospel" is one of a few possible phrases the priest says as he places ash on the foreheads of the faithful on Ash Wednesday.

Why does the Church present this message today? Jesus can fill us with grace, the love we need to become saints. But a hundred pounds of earthly attachments make it hard to fly high. We are tied down. To repent is to turn away from sinful attachments. Giving helps us turn away. His "yoke is easy" and his "burden is light" (Matthew 11:30). Our Annual Diocesan Appeal presents an opportunity to give, let go, and ascend. Give as you are able, and Jesus will help you find the same lightness of heart that freed the first Apostles to drop their boats, nets, and expectations to follow him. Help us and join us!
