FROM THE PASTOR

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's gospel reading, Jesus calls us to forgive so that we will be forgiven and to stop judging so that we will not be judged. Even though we are familiar with these words, this gospel contains some of Jesus's hardest teachings. It goes against our hardwired self-protective instincts to love enemies and to do good to those who wish us ill. When we are struck, our nature tells us to fight or flee – and with good reason. God made us this way so that we can avoid harm. Today, however, Jesus tells us to rise above these reflexes and to choose a higher path, one we can only hope to achieve with his help. We might fear that such words will let us be taken advantage of, and that's true; at no point does Jesus ever promise that we will not be taken advantage of in this world. Expending energy and time on people who don't care, or on those who don't even like us seems like a waste of time. It is impossible, fruitless, and frustrating to express care even when it doesn't matter. Jesus's command to "love one another" might not mean that we empty ourselves to exhaustion. But it does mean that when we do pour ourselves out – whether we receive payment back or not – we can have confidence that we have acted in love and acted for Christ. Today Jesus calls us not to self-preservation but to live with the radical love and generosity that he will model when he washes his disciples' feet and ultimately lays down his very life for us.

In these last weeks before Lent, may we accept this invitation of Jesus to tune ourselves to him –to love one another as he has loved us.

Make it a great week!!

Fr. Balash

"Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?" (Luke 6:41)

Jesus calls us to self-awareness and humility, reminding us to look inward before we judge others. This same humility is essential when discerning how God is calling us to serve. Are you being called to dedicate your life to God's service as a priest or religious brother or sister? Talk to your priest or reach out to Fr. Chad Johnson at (330) 744-8451 or cjohnson@youngstowndiocese.org.

Several of our parishioners have approached me over the past few weeks telling me they would love to work at the Fish Dinners, but just can't because of work schedules, health reasons and other conflicts in their schedules. I told them that they can help immensely by attending the fish dinners during the Lenten Season. I would like to extend an invitation to all our parishioners to have dinner with our parish family every Friday during Lent. Great food! Great people!

God bless and Thank you,
Deacon John

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back…" - LUKE 6:35

Easier said than done, right? But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Praying for our enemies doesn't change them, it changes us. Mercy and compassion will keep us on the path to holiness.
