FROM THE PASTOR

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.
Peace in heaven and glory in the highest."

This verse from the Gospel of Luke, read today as we bless our palms, opens for us our celebration of Holy Week. Our Lenten season ends in the coming days as we celebrate Palm Sunday today. It has been said that "human life is like a great way of the cross. We do not have to be in Church to go through the different stations. The way of the Cross is everywhere, and we travel it every day, in spite of ourselves and without being aware of it." Today we recall the Way of the Cross, the journey of Jesus's suffering and death. When we think of the crosses we encounter, it is easy to name events of death and destruction where people endure disease, famine, and lack of resources. We also experience the cross in the greed and distaste of how people talk and treat one another. However, the "cross" can also be experienced in the joy of life. We see examples of the cross not only in pain and suffering, but also when people practice humility and kindness with one another. We encounter this in our own self-gift, much like Jesus who gave himself to others. As we begin this solemn time of the year we might ask if we recognize this self-gift in our midst? How do we carry our cross in life and more importantly how do we build up others who carry a cross greater than ours? As we bring our Lenten season to a close may we find true renewal and rebirth of our faith in God, His Son, and the Church so that our season of joy and hope may continue this Easter and beyond!

I hope this has been a good and holy time for you and your family. The hallmarks of Lent – prayer, sacrifice, and almsgiving – have pointed us toward this coming week of joy and resurrection. Thank you for a wonderful and blessed season of Lent. As our world comes to life and springtime abounds, may the upcoming Easter season be one of great joy and blessings for you and your family.

Finally, many thanks to everyone for making our Fish Dinners a huge success this year! I would like to thank all of you who generously supported our dinners and most especially all who worked so hard each week to make this year's dinners a great event for our parish.

Make it a great week!!

Fr. Balash

HOLY WEEK NEWS AND UPDATES

WHAT EXACTLY HAPPENS THIS WEEK?

The Triduum, which means "three days," is a celebration of liturgy that begins on Holy Thursday, continues to Good Friday and ends with the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday. Thus, it is not three separate liturgical events, but one liturgy that takes three days to celebrate!

The Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday begins the "three-day" liturgy that includes the washing of feet and solemn stripping of the sanctuary. On this night we celebrate the institution of the Eucharist, the institution of ministry, and we turn the church from a place of presence to one of absence as we recall the agony of Jesus in the garden.

We resume on Good Friday with the reading of the Passion and Veneration of the Cross Service. This service continues what was started the night before and looks forward to the resurrection. A highlight is the Veneration of the Cross in which we acknowledge and accept the cross we bear in life in solidarity with Jesus Christ.

Finally on Holy Saturday, the Triduum Liturgy concludes with the Easter Vigil – our first parish celebration of Easter! We recall and celebrate the new life received by the Resurrection of Jesus! It is hoped that many of you will join us this year for this solemn and special liturgy that represents the core meaning of our faith and beliefs. If you have never experienced this liturgy on Holy Thursday and concluding on Holy Saturday, perhaps this year is the year to do so.

CHRISM MASS

The annual Chrism Mass will be held on Holy Tuesday, April 15, 2025, at 10:30 a.m. in St. Columba Cathedral. The Most Reverend David J. Bonnar will be principal celebrant. Included in the Chrism Mass is the annual renewal of the diocesan and religious priests of their commitment to priestly service.

An additional focus of this Liturgy will be the consecration of the Sacred Chrism and blessing of the Oil of the Sick and the Oil of Catechumens. At the close of Mass each pastor will receive Sacred Chrism and the other Holy Oils for use in their parish.

The Chrism Mass will be available via live stream on the Catholic Echo website: www.catholicecho.org/live/.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

If you would like to receive the sacrament of Reconciliation this week, confessions will be heard on Wednesday, April 16, 6:00 pm at Blessed Sacrament Church, 3020 Reeves Rd. NE, in Warren.

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

The Pontifical Good Friday collection helps Christians in the Holy Land by supporting Catholics in parishes and schools, maintaining Christian shrines, and caring for refugees. Thank you for your generosity.

He was pierced for our sins,
crushed for our iniquity.
He bore the punishment that makes us whole,
by his wounds we were healed.

We had all gone astray like sheep,
all following our own way;
But the LORD laid upon him
the guilt of us all.

Though harshly treated, he submitted…
—Isaiah 53: 5-7

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

St Patrick's 4th grade PSR class enjoyed doing a project for Lent, learning how Jesus paid for all our sins by his crucifixion. The "Paid In Full" crosses made by the students helped them to understand the true meaning of the Lenten and Easter season.

Over the Lenten season the children focused on forgiving and giving others not only second chances but third and fourth chances. They were reminded through the gospel readings how our Father forgives us for our mistakes. We must forgive each other and, with the help of God's grace, pray for those who harm us. The children are reminded to fall back on one of the golden rules for our Catholic faith—treat others the way you would want others to treat you with compassion and love.

It's a wonderful calling to be able to work with and teach the children of our Parish. Not only are we a part of their spiritual growth, but they are also a part of our spiritual growth. The children are the future of our parish and it's a privilege to be part of that.

God bless our children and their families

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"...I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me."
(Luke 22:34)

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet so not to cause a disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you don't think you know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful conversation when the opportunity to talk about our faith arises. Joyfully share your faith with others.
