FROM THE PASTOR

Sixth Sunday of Easter

How good it was to be at Saint Patrick last weekend to celebrate Mass with all of you. Thank you for the warm welcome along with the multitude of good wishes and words of support and encouragement. As I mentioned, it is my hope to return to Saint Patrick in early June. In the meantime, thank you once again for your kindness and care.

In these last weeks of the Easter season, we hear Jesus preparing his followers for his ascension, when he will be separated from them for some time. Jesus also prepares them for Pentecost, promising to send his Holy Spirit so that they will not be left alone in his apparent absence. We continue to live in a post-ascension world, waiting with the disciples for Jesus's final return. As he prepares his disciples for his departure, he reminds them (and us!) that his command to love, the faith to which he calls us, and the hope he promises will not disappear. We are offered the Spirit who teaches and reminds us of all that Jesus has told us. In the summit and font of our Christian life, the Eucharist lets us be filled with the grace and peace of the Holy Spirit and so remember Christ's promise of hope and love. We live in a world where Jesus's presence is in Spirit, sacrament, and story rather than in a human body; this can be challenging. It would surely be nice to hear his voice and enjoy his bodily presence. Since we can't, Jesus reassures us that he is with us, never leaving us alone as we travel through life. As we continue our journey let us never forget this promise of Jesus and may we through our words and actions continue to share this good news with each other.

Next Sunday we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord and begin a four-week period of feasts on Sunday. We will celebrate in succession, Pentecost, the Holy Trinity, and the Body and Blood Christ. These feasts, particularly the Feast of the Ascension, completes the fullness of the Easter season. As we have celebrated the life, death, resurrection of Jesus, we conclude this joyful season commemorating the ascension of the Lord into heaven followed by the bestowal of the Holy Spirit. May these coming weeks be ones of joy and thanksgiving for the presence and promise of our Lord in our lives and world.

All the best!
Fr. Balash

CHURCH AT HOME COMBINED COLLECTION
Next weekend, May 31-June 1, parishes in the Diocese of Youngstown will hold the annual CHURCH AT HOME combined collection. This three-in-one collection supports the national and local work of three important Church ministries. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development works to break the cycles of poverty by providing local and national support for low-income people with a hand up, not a hand out. The USCCB Catholic Communication Campaign helps the Church spread the Gospel message through local and national media. The Catholic University of America and Newman Campus Ministries supports educational and research programs and develops future leaders at the national university of our Catholic Church. Please prayerfully consider a generous donation.

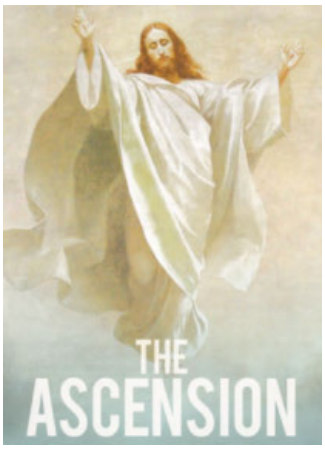
NEXT SUNDAY—FEAST OF THE ASCENSION



The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord commemorates Jesus's ascension into heaven. Historically, this holyday has been celebrated 40 days after Easter Sunday – the Thursday in the sixth week of Easter. Most U.S. dioceses, including those in Ohio, have moved the celebration of the Ascension to the seventh Sunday of Easter. In 2025 the Ascension will be on May 31/June1.

The St. Patrick Church calendars that were passed out at the end of 2024 show Thursday, May 29, 2025 as the feast of the Ascension of the Lord, mentioning that several dioceses transfer the feast to June 1. That is the case in Ohio dioceses.

All gave some and some gave all. We pray for the repose of their souls and for their families.

Blessings to you on Memorial Day.

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

My name is Michael Foster. I am a graduating senior at Hubbard High School. I will be graduating Summa Cum Laude and a Hubbard Scholar. I was also 2-year member of the National Honor Society. In the Fall, I will be attending Kent State University where I will be majoring in Architecture.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude for being selected as one of the 2025 St. Patrick's Youth Scholarship recipients. Receiving this scholarship is a tremendous blessing and I am incredibly thankful to the St. Patrick Church community for their support.

This scholarship is a significant help in making my college education a reality, and it will allow me to focus on my studies without the pressure of financial burden.

I am deeply grateful for the Faith the church community has placed in my future. I am committed to using this opportunity to make a positive impact, both in my academic pursuits and in my life. I will always remember the support I have received from St. Patrick's and the importance it has played in my journey. I have enjoyed working with my community and the Church throughout the years, from volunteering as a referee for HCYL soccer to working the St. Patrick's Festival. The memories I have made with PSR and the CELEBRATE group will stay with me forever.

Thank you again for your generosity and unwavering support. I pray that God will continue to bless you all with His abundant grace.

May God bless you always,

Michael Foster

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"…Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid."
(John 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you. Make God your first choice and not your last resort.

FROM THE DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

2025 ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL—ONE IN HOPE, ONE IN MISSION

"Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." We can prepare a dwelling for God within us by keeping His commandments and loving Christ. Then we will experience His peace and presence in this life and be a welcomed guest in the next, for Jesus promises us that "if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be" (Luke 14:3). We can invite Christ to abide in us by sharing His love with others. And we can bring Christ's welcoming spirit to those in need through our prayers and support of the Annual Diocesan Appeal.

To date, 220 parishioners have donated $52,100.40 of our parish goal of $83,000. Thank you! Pledge cards are available in the bulletin holders, or you can visit www.doy.org.
