PASTOR'S COLUMN

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

As with the Trinity, our understanding of Eucharist is fundamentally grounded in relationship. At the Last Supper, Jesus gathered with his friends and gave an example of how to continue to grow in relationship with God and each other. His words are both a statement of truth and a call to action: "this is my body…this is my blood…do this in remembrance of me." As people of faith, our remembering is not a passive event where we simply recall what has happened in the past. Rather, our remembering is active. When we follow Jesus's command to break the bread and share the cup, we not only remember the historical Jesus of the past, we also celebrate Jesus's presence with us today as he continues to nourish and sustain us. We remember the past, celebrate in the present, and look forward to the future where the reign of God will be fulfilled. We see this vividly in today's gospel. When the disciples state that they only have five loaves and two fish to feed the gathered crowds, they do not realize that the Bread of Life is in their midst. As Jesus prays, breaks, and shares today, he foreshadows his future death and resurrection. Likewise, Jesus makes it abundantly clear that his disciples must follow his example in their own lives. When Jesus says, "give them some food yourselves," he shows that they must take an active role in bringing about the kingdom of God. The paschal mystery is deeply communal. So is the Eucharist. Thus when we gather each week to celebrate the Eucharist, we do so in the hope that we too will continue to live the command given to the disciples long ago – to remember…be…and share the grace of God with others.

In celebrating the Feast of the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ this weekend, we bring to a close a trinity of special Sunday feasts –Pentecost, Trinity Sunday and Corpus Christi. Next weekend we will have the rare occurrence of celebrating Saints Peter and Paul, however today the Church celebrates the presence of Christ in the Eucharistic species. In his words over the bread and wine at the Last Supper, Jesus reveals his desire to become a complete self-gift in the sacrifice of his body and blood. Today, this gift is still present to us in the Body and Blood of Jesus consecrated at the altar, consumed by us, and reserved for adoration and worship. Our participation in the Eucharist binds us to the sacrifice and victory of Jesus. Each time we draw close to the altar to consume His Body and Blood, we pledge ourselves to live out the new and everlasting covenant. We who receive the Lord in bread and wine are called to be the Body of Christ for others. On this special feast, we might reflect on how we are living this call.

Make it a great week!
Fr. Balash

FIRST STEP FOR CHANGE

Thank you to all who have participated in Catholic Charities' First Step for Change campaign at our parish. To date, we have collected just over $2,500. Catholic Charities' First Step program provides specific material assistance to pregnant women and families with children ages 0-3. Funds collected through First Step for Change are used to supplement case management services with material goods, such as food, formula, diapers and hygiene products.

If you, or anyone you know, needs assistance please contact Jennifer Lucarelli at 330-744-8451, or jlucarelli@youngstowndiocese.org. Also, if you still have any baby bottles or donation packets at home, please return them by next weekend (June 28/29).

Thank you for your generosity and support,
Deacon Bob

WELCOME TO ST. PATRICK!

And even more importantly,

Jesus welcomes you.

"Take Heart! Do Not Lose Heart! Behold the Sacred Heart!"

This Friday, June 27, 2025 the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Bishop Bonnar has released his third pastoral letter entitled: "Take Heart! Do Not Lose Heart! Behold the Sacred Heart!", to coincide with this feast especially in this Jubilee Year of Hope declared by the late Pope Francis and this time of Jubilee honoring the Sacred Heart.

The late Pope Francis wrote: "The venerable image portraying Christ holding out his loving heart also shows him looking directly at us, inviting us to encounter, dialogue and trust; it shows his strong hands capable of supporting us and his lips that speak personally to each of us".

Bishop Bonnar writes in his pastoral letter, "For broken, torn, tattered, and lost hearts, the Sacred Heart of Jesus demonstrates a saving and lifegiving way forward. The Sacred Heart exudes a divine presence of love that is always awaiting us no matter our condition or state. He loves us! Always! Anywhere! Forever! May God forgive us for the times when we dismiss this eternal love or look for it in all the wrong places."

In Bishop Bonnar's Pastoral Letter many images of the Sacred Heart of Jesus found in the churches of our diocese are featured. The above image of St. Patrick's Sacred Heart of Jesus statue, set on the backdrop of our beautiful stained glass windows, can be found in the bishop's letter.

"Let us turn, then, to the Sacred Heart, model of true humanity, and ask him to make our heart ever more like his." —Pope Leo XIV.

Bishop Bonnar's pastoral letter will be available on June 27, 2025, the Feast of the Sacred Heart, corresponding with the end of the 350th Jubilee for the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The letter is also online at https://doy.org/pastoral-letter-behold-the-sacred-heart.

PREPARING FOR NEXT WEEKEND

Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles

June 29, 2025

First Reading--Acts 12:1-11

Suddenly the angel of the Lord stood by him (Peter) and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and awakened him, saying, "Get up quickly."

Second Reading--2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18

I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me.

Gospel—Matthew 16:13-19

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

Teaching children about Jesus brings unique blessings. Some of these blessings include the joy of seeing your own faith develop, the satisfaction of planting the seeds of truth, and the opportunity to gain experience in one's own understanding of the Catholic faith. It also fosters a sense of purpose and fulfillment as you guide the children towards a relationship with Christ and Mother Church, potentially impacting lives for an eternity.

Our Saint Patrick School of Religion and children's ministries have so many opportunities to offer these blessings for us. Some include teaching, being an aide or substitute, helping our security guards to protect the children during PSR, help with our coffee/donut hour, organize social/fun activities for the children, provide service opportunities, help with SHINE, and help with Children's Liturgy of the Word during Mass.

During the summer months, we will feature various parishioners who serve in some of these capacities as they share their blessings from their ministries as well. If you feel called to help in any way, please contact us. Our children are our greatest gift from God and certainly a crucial link in perpetuating our beautiful Catholic faith in years to come.

Thank you,

Deacon John and Karen Bartos

VOCATIONS

"He spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and He healed those who needed to be cured." (Luke 9:11b)

Just as Christ ministered to the needs of those around Him, you may be called to bring spiritual healing and proclaim God's kingdom to His people. Are you being invited to follow in Jesus' footsteps by serving the Church as a priest? Talk to your priest or reach out to Fr. Chad Johnson at (330) 744-8451 or cjohnson@youngstowndiocese.org.

JULY FOOD PANTRY AND EMERGENCY OUTREACH MINISTRY

The July Food Pantry will be Saturday, July 12, 2025 from 7:30-9:30 am in the parish center. For the month of July, Oatmeal is needed. However, all pantry or toiletry items are welcome during any month. If possible, please leave donations inside the creek-side door of the church, closest to the parish center. Help us fill our pantry in order for us to help those in need!

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." (Luke 9:17)

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when you share what you have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! Each of us has a role in God's plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You just may be the answer to someone else's prayer.
