PASTOR'S COLUMN

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel reading, when Jesus tells us, "Do not be afraid any longer, little flock," he knows just how paralyzing fear can be. When we act or do not act out of fear, we bow to the feelings of insecurity and misperception. These feelings are not of God. Fear is not of God. We know this because we hear throughout scripture God's command, "do not be afraid." Taking these words to heart can be very challenging as the fears we encounter every day are very real. Jesus is telling us to trust in God during these times of fear. This theme continues throughout the Gospel as Jesus addresses in whom and what we place our trust. Jesus says, "for where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." This statement is an invitation to reflect on what it is we truly value and treasure in our lives, for what we value is where we place our hearts. Do we place our hearts in relationships with God and others? Do we place our hearts in gratitude and peace? Do we place our hearts in self-giving love or do we place our hearts elsewhere? The gospel ends with a sense of urgency, as Jesus reminds us that there will be a time when the Son of Man will come. As we do not know the day or the hour, we must constantly live in relationship with God, practicing what we claim to value. This is not fear or cowardice or an act of apprehension, rather, our constant relationship with God shows trust in what we truly treasure.

This weekend we welcome Father Carlo Balaguer, RCJ, to our parish for our annual Missionary Co-Op appeal and collection. Father Carlo is a member of the Rogationist Order. The Congregation of the Rogationists is an international community of missionary priests and brothers who serve in different countries, helping the poor and needy. They care for children in orphanages, run health and nutrition centers, operate schools for deaf and disabled children, and technical and vocational schools. Thank you for your generosity to today's second collection to support the missionary work of the Congregation of the Rogationists of the Heart of Jesus.

Finally, what a fabulous and fun weekend for our annual Festival last week. Perfect weather, delicious food, good fun, and renewed friendships made for a wonderful time for everyone. My sincerest and grateful thanks to all who worked at this year's Festival – prep workers, booth workers, and clean-up. Once again Saint Patrick Parish shined as a beacon of faith, community, and dedication! Thank you one and all. As soon as the bills are paid a full financial report will be provided. The preliminary results look very good!!!!

Make it a great week!

Father Balash

"Mass Minders!"

Now and then it is good and beneficial to be reminded of some important qualities and characteristics to help enhance and improve our spirit of worship and praise at Mass each weekend.

As a Catholic can I receive Communion in a non-Catholic Church and can non-Catholics receive Communion at Mass? There have always been questions about a Catholic person receiving Communion in non-Catholic Church and non-Catholics receiving Communion in a Catholic Church. This question often arises at the time of funerals or weddings. We fully participate in the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. The Second Vatican Council encourages us to receive Holy Communion devoutly and frequently. As Catholics, we believe that Christ is truly and really present in the Eucharist. And so, when we come forward to receive Holy Communion we say "AMEN!" which means "so be it," assenting and confirming that this bread and wine truly and really is the presence of Christ. In addition to this belief, however, our "Amen" at communion time also means our saying "yes" to our faith, commitment, and membership to the Catholic Church and its teachings. The point is that while some non-Catholic traditions may hold a similar understanding of the Eucharist, it is not as complete as the Catholic understanding. Furthermore, receiving Holy Communion carries an additional commitment to the Catholic Church and its teachings. Therefore, it is not proper or appropriate for a non-Catholic to receive communion in the Catholic Church, and it is equally improper for a Catholic to receive communion in a non-Catholic Church even though the core belief in "communion" may be similar. It is unfortunate that these divisions remain after some 500 years. However, until the differences and divisions are resolved, out of respect for each Church's beliefs, one should refrain from receiving communion in a faith that is not their own.

PREPARING FOR NEXT WEEKEND

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 17, 2025

First Reading--Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10
Then the king ordered Ebed-melech the Cushite to take three men along with him, and draw the prophet Jeremiah out of the cistern before he should die.

Second Reading--Hebrews 12:1-4
Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us.

Gospel—Luke 12:49-53
Jesus said to his disciples: "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!"

PSR NEWS

Our Parish School of Religion registration packets for 2025-2026 have been mailed for all previously enrolled students. Please complete the registration form (front and back) and the permission form for pictures and social media and return them to the parish office ASAP. If your child was not enrolled last year and you have not received a registration packet, please call Karen Bartos at the parish office (330)534-1928. We also will have the information on our parish website at www.stpatshub.org under the tab of Growing Our Faith. All children must have at least two years of faith formation prior to celebrating a sacrament.

WHAT IS A CATCHIST?

The word catechist comes from a Greek word meaning to "echo." A catechist echoes the teachings of the Church and their personal relationship with Jesus Christ through their words and good deeds. As we prepare for this coming PSR year, we are praying that God will answer our prayers to send us catechists or aides that feel called to serve in this ministry of the Church. We are in need of help in Kindergarten, 3rd and 8th grade. Classes are on Sunday mornings from 9:00 -10:15 a.m. at the school. We have a very loving and supportive staff of ordinary people just like you who very generously share their Catholic faith, spirituality, and love for Christ with our younger generations. If you would like more information about this ministry or feel God calling you to this ministry, please call Karen Bartos at the parish office.

"Catechists are people who keep the memory of God alive; they keep it alive in themselves and are able to revive it in others." ~Pope Francis

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

As a parent and a 6th grade PSR teacher at St. Patrick Church, I've come to appreciate how much of a gift it is to serve in our parish community. Whether I'm teaching children about our faith, assisting as a substitute Eucharistic Minister, volunteering at our parish festival, or participating as a 4th Degree Knight of Columbus, each role allows me to give back a portion of the blessings God has given me.

One of the true blessings of teaching PSR has been working alongside my co-teacher, Bob Meluch. His dedication, faith, and support have made a real difference in our classroom. Together, we've been able to create a welcoming and engaging environment where our 6th graders can grow in their knowledge and love of the faith. I'm grateful for his partnership and the energy he brings to our ministry.

I also recently began a course to grow in my understanding of our Blessed Mother Mary and to earn my certification as an elementary catechist. This journey of learning and service is helping me deepen my own faith while hopefully planting seeds in the hearts of our young people.

Stewardship isn't just about giving—it's about living our faith in action. Through teaching, volunteering, and simply showing up with an open heart, we all have something to offer. I encourage every parent and parishioner to prayerfully consider how they might share their time and talents within our parish. Together, we help build a stronger, more vibrant faith community.
