Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's gospel account of Martha and Mary further illustrates the important role of women in discipleship and throughout Luke's gospel narrative. Beginning with Mary and Elizabeth, we see that women play an active role in salvation history. We also see Luke uphold the example of faithful women—the widow who shares her coin, the raising of Jairus's daughter, the curing of the hemorrhaging woman to name a few. Later, it is women who remain with Jesus on the cross and who are the first witnesses to Jesus's resurrection. The kingdom of God is dependent on people like Martha and Mary who offer hospitality to visitors, listen intently, and ultimately boldly proclaim what they have seen and heard. What is important however, is that Luke highlights these women as models of discipleship for all of us. Sometimes discipleship requires meeting physical needs, like we see in Martha preparing food. But Jesus reminds us that discipleship is also about truly being present with and for others. It is only when we are attentive to those we encounter that we can fully respond. It is only when we are attentive to Jesus that we can hear his voice and follow his invitation and command. In this coming week, may we look to Martha and Mary, and all the holy women throughout Scripture, as examples of discipleship and life in Christ. If we focus on Christ, everything else will fall into place.

We are just two weeks away from our annual Parish Festival. The coming days will be filled with much activity and your help is needed! Set-up begins next Saturday morning, food preparation is underway, items for the festival basket auction are arriving, and raffle tickets are still available. If you are interested in helping in the preparation and set-up or in working at the Festival be sure to sign up or call the parish office. We can always use the help! Let's make this year's Festival the best ever!

As we mark the halfway point of July, our summer continues to move along. I hope you and your family continue to enjoy this time of rest and relaxation. Make the best of these days because in a few short weeks school and all the other activities of life will resume in full swing!

Make it a great week!

"Mass Minders!"

Now and then it is good and beneficial to be reminded of some important qualities and characteristics to help enhance and improve our spirit of worship and praise at Mass each weekend. Watch for occasional updates and descriptions about various dimensions of our weekly worship together!

- Receiving Holy Communion: The reception of Communion can be traced to the New Testament where it describes the events of the Last Supper and the intimate bond that Christians share with the Lord. In its earliest forms, the mass was part of a communal supper shared by members of the area. Each week, the early Christians would gather as a community and have a full meal and at the end of it, they would share the bread and wine. Eventually as the Church grew, the supper was dropped and the fuller liturgy of scripture and sharing developed. Through all of this, the faithful continued to receive the bread and wine on a frequent basis and by hand. In the Middle Ages (10-12th centuries) an extreme and intensified reverence for the consecrated bread and wine developed that also caused a growing sense of unworthiness on the faithful's part to receive the Eucharist. The result was an actual decline in reception, the disappearance of receiving the cup, and when one did receive it was now on the tongue. The Second Vatican Council, in an attempt to return to the original understanding and practices of Communion, called for the active and full participation of the faithful in the Eucharistic liturgy. It stated that participation in the eucharistic liturgy is incomplete without the reception of Holy Communion. To counteract the Middle Age developments, the Vatican Council restored Communion from the cup, encouraged frequent reception and restored the ancient and original way of receiving the bread –by hand. It is important to keep in mind, when receiving Holy Communion, the proper and only response is "Amen." The person puts one hand on top of the other, palms open and facing upward. Upon receiving, the bottom hand reaches over taking the host and consuming it. For the Precious Blood, after responding "Amen," the person takes a small sip of wine from the cup and returns it to the minister. Please note: the practice of intinction (taking the host and dipping it in the wine) is not permitted.

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

My name is Louie Alessio, and I am an 8th Grade Catechist along with Mr. Gary Gawdyda. Preparing the young men and women of our parish for the Sacrament of Confirmation is a tremendous honor; it is also a very serious responsibility that I and Mr. Gary view with the utmost care and importance. Much like a drill instructor who prepares young individuals by teaching the basic survival skills; in preparing individuals for this important Sacrament we get them ready for the spiritual challenges that they will face for the remainder of their lives.

The pillars of Catholicism that reside in every Baptized Catholic are continually under attack from the -ism's championed in just about every facet of our culture today: Modernism, Individualism, Hedonism, Relativism, Minimalism. Our young men and women, and many of us as adults (young and old), serve on the frontlines in this battle for our souls, whether we choose to acknowledge it or not.

Confirmation not only completes one's initiation into the Catholic faith, but it allows us all to truly understand and embrace the gifts and the fruits of the Holy Spirit. These will assist us, as Saint Paul writes in his letter to the Ephesians, "take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit". (Eph 6:17). The pendulum is slowly swinging back to where many individuals, on social media and within our society, are becoming less afraid of mentioning the name of Jesus Christ and acknowledging Him as Lord and Savior. We all have an inherent responsibility, as members of the church, to instruct and guide the youngest generations of Christ's Body to put on the Spirit of God so that they will "be able to stand firm against the tactics of the devil" (Eph 6:1), so that they will become active participants in the stewardship of Christ's Church.

On behalf of Mr. Gary, we thank all of you (staff and parishioners) for your continued support in this wonderful endeavor.

God bless,

Louie Alessio

AUGUST FOOD PANTRY AND EMERGENCY OUTREACH MINISTRY

The August Food Pantry will be Saturday, August 9, 2025 from 7:30-9:30 am in the parish center. For the month of August, Oatmeal is needed. However, all pantry or toiletry items are welcome during any month. If possible, please leave donations inside the creek-side door of the church, closest to the parish center. Help us fill our pantry in order for us to help those in need!

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"…I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God." Colossians 1:25

We are all called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends, and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.
