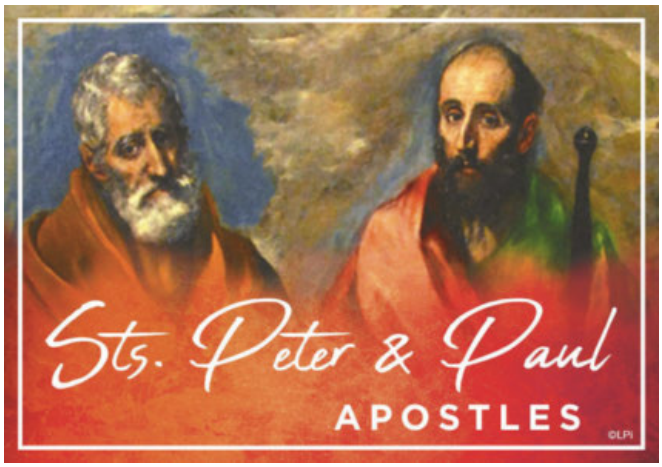
PASTOR'S COLUMN

Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles

Our month long of special feast days concludes this weekend with the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul. This is a rare occasion to celebrate the feast day of these two great saints on a Sunday…it only happens once every 7 years! Our readings today express the theme of God helping those who put their trust in Him. The first reading tells us how God rescued Peter from prison. The second reading relates how Paul praises God for all the ways he has been protected during his ministry and finally, our Gospel reading today reminds us of the way Christ structured the Church with Peter as the head. As we remember Peter and Paul today, may we always be enlightened by their words and actions and may we continue to trust and thank our loving God for his goodness and kindness in our lives.



Our summer season continues to move along, and it is hard to believe that this coming week we will already be celebrating the Fourth of July. How come the summer seems to move along much quicker than winter! I hope it has been a good time for you so far with the opportunity to relax and revitalize yourself from the long winter. Many of you, I am sure, have some plans to get away during these months to enjoy the warm weather and the many sights and recreational destinations our country and state have to offer. Whether you are heading to the mountains or to the shore, out west or down south, I hope that it is a good and restful time for you and your family. God has certainly blessed us with the ability to enjoy and take in all the sights and good times that summer has to offer. Please remember, however, that as you travel this summer, one thing that shouldn't take a vacation from our lives is our faith and duty to praise God for his goodness. Many resort areas offer numerous opportunities to attend Mass on weekends. A convenient and helpful resource in locating nearby churches can be found at www.masstimes.org which lists information and Mass schedules for many churches throughout the country, including our own parish. Be sure to check it out, especially if you are traveling over a weekend. Finally, while it is certainly good to get away and enjoy vacation, should you find yourself being away from Saint Patrick on a weekend, please be sure to make up your weekly contribution upon your return. Our bills and monthly obligations continue whether you are here or not, and so, making up any missed weekly contribution is deeply appreciated. The months of July and August are especially lean for us, so remaining current with your weekly contribution helps greatly. Thank you and enjoy the upcoming Fourth of July holiday weekend!

Have a good week,
Fr. Balash

OFFICE HOURS THIS WEEK
The church office will be closed this Wednesday, Thursday and Friday (July 2-4) in observance of the Independence Day holiday.

A Special Thank You

Last weekend I celebrated my 38th Ordination Anniversary and my 65th Birthday! I would like to offer my sincerest and grateful thanks and appreciation to all of you for remembering my two special days. I appreciate your good wishes, kind thoughts, and continued support and encouragement. I feel truly blessed to be part of such a wonderful parish! Thank you once again.

Father Balash

DO YOU HEAR IT????

It's not too early…but it may be too late someday…

- Have you been worshipping with us but never officially took the step to become Catholic?
- Have you been away from the Church…and now have returned but want to know more?
- Are you Catholic but haven't received the Sacrament of Confirmation or Eucharist?
- Have you joined us from a different background and would like to find out more about the Catholic Church?
- Have you felt God leading you and want to find out where that might be?

If any of the above applies to you, or if you know of anyone who could answer YES to any of these questions, we would love to help you on your journey! The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is the process by which adults seeking answers in their lives are brought into full union with our parish community and the Catholic Church. The OCIA provides a spiritual opportunity to learn and discuss various aspects of the Catholic faith and its practices. If you or someone you know might be interested in learning more, please contact Fr. Balash or Deacon Bob at the Parish Office for more information.

PRAYER FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY

Father of all nations and ages,
We recall the day when our country claimed its place among the family of nations; for what has been achieved we give you thanks, for the work that still remains we ask your help, and as you have called us from many peoples to be one nation, grant that, under your providence, our country may share your blessings with all the peoples of the earth.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

My name is Chris Buccino and I am catechist for the fifth grade Parish School of Religion (PSR) here at St. Patrick's religious education ministry. For me, teaching PSR offers a rewarding opportunity to help children grow in their Catholic faith, learn about God, and develop a strong foundation for their spiritual lives.

When I first started this ministry, three years ago, Deacon John told me, "I love walking by your classroom and hearing the children laugh and have fun. That is our mission at PSR, for the children to enjoy learning about their faith and Jesus." Deacon John's validation of our classroom behavior allowed me to realize that religion teaching and learning should be enjoyable!

Teaching PSR has helped me deepen my faith as I prepare lessons, engage with students and parents, to share the teachings of the Church. One of our main objectives in the class is to read and reflect on the weekly Gospel, so we can develop a relationship with God, and understand religious teachings. In our class, we use creative activities, games, prayers and opportunities to learn in a unique way. Children are different learners today and they deserve to be taught their faith in a way that is enjoyable,

This past year, we did a service project for the Animal Welfare League and collected items for the animal shelter. The students were able to see that not only talking about the Gospel is important in our faith, it is even more important to live the Gospel.

Many of you would be wonderful catechists, as it offers a personally enriching experience, fosters many skills, and deepens an understanding of yourself and of others. It is a calling to share the love of God and help the next generation grow in their faith, to help contribute to a stronger parish community. Please consider joining this rewarding ministry.

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." (2 Timothy 4:7)

How many of us can say this? St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God doesn't call us to be successful, he calls us to be faithful." How many times have we been blinded by the success of the world at the expense of our faith? Matthew Kelly says, "Take one minute each day to remind yourself that you are just passing through this life and will die one day; you will live more intentionally with a passion and purpose."

VOCATIONS

"You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it." (Matthew 16:18)

Sometimes God speaks to us very clearly, other times it is a little more difficult to understand what God is asking of us. Maybe you feel like Peter, God is calling you to something greater than yourself, but we don't fully understand what He is asking of us. Now would be a great time to talk to your priest to better learn how to hear God's voice and discern His purpose for your life. Reach out to Fr. Chad Johnson at (330) 744-8451 or cjohnson@youngstowndiocese.org.
