AROUND THE TABLE

Very Rev. Michael A. Swierz, Pastor

Thirty-Third Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

The parable of the talents. —Matthew 25: 14-30

Skill set

Today's Gospel poses two questions that are surprisingly hard for many of us to answer.

First: What are we good at? No one of us is a total disaster; we aren't completely devoid of any skills or (to use the Gospel word) "talents." We may not be able to perform brain surgery, but we can comfort a child just stung by a bee. We may not be able to paint beautiful watercolors, but we can roast a chicken and bake a pie that brings the family together on Sunday nights. We may not be a CEO, but when customers leave our checkout line they're a bit happier and lighter in spirit because of the warm way we treated them. So never mind the false modesty — answer the question: What are we good at? What do we do well? What's the most meaningful contribution we can make to our family or church or community: the compassion to encourage and support others? The discipline to manage people? The patience to listen?

The second question: What are we doing with that talent? If we can make a living off our talent and skill, terrific — but how are we contributing the good we possess to make the Kingdom of God a reality here and now? To keep our "talents" to ourselves is a betrayal of God's trust; to act as if we have nothing to contribute is an act of ingratitude to the God who gave those skills and abilities to us.

So what has God entrusted to you — and that's the word: entrusted. What has God invested in you for the good of the world? We seldom see the question that way. We're taught how to monetize whatever talents and skills we possess, translating our knowledge and abilities into successful careers. Or we're overwhelmed with a false sense of humility: We don't think our gifts are worth all that much to begin with, so we keep them to ourselves for our own amusement or diversion. But today's parable challenges us to see whatever "talents" we possess — be they the ability to manage a big organization or the quiet patience to heal a hurting child — as a sacred trust. And our lives will be judged by how we used our "talents," whether earth moving or quietly healing, to realize God's Kingdom of mercy and justice in our time and place.

I can't believe it's already Thanksgiving this week. Although, as you wander through the neighborhoods, Christmas decorations and trees are shining bright as well. Although everyone has their own reasons for getting ready for the Christmas season at this time, please don't overlook Thanksgiving. We should be thankful for all the blessings that come our way each and every day. However, sometimes the best intentions fall apart. That's why we have Thanksgiving Day to give thanks. At every celebration of Holy Mass, we are called to give thanks and sometimes that doesn't happen as well. I challenge all of us to have a thankful heart for all the blessings that come our way and to be thankful for God's presence in our life's journey, teaching us not to be afraid but to trust in God's love and mercy. For all that shouldn't we be thankful?

Soon we will come to the end of our liturgical year. On November 26 we will celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King of the Universe, a good time for us to ask ourselves if we have grown spiritually closer to the Lord. How has our prayer life grown? Have we engaged in the Revival of the Holy Eucharist? Do we really believe Jesus is present in the Eucharist we share? What is our understanding and appreciation for Holy Mass? Have we read our Bibles and pondered the scriptures?

As we give thanks to the Lord, let's honestly look at our life's journey and change what needs to be changed and celebrate all that is good.

Until we meet around the table, Fr. Mike

WELCOME TO ST. PAT'S!

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

(EUCHARIST MEANS "THANKSGIVING.")

We give you thanks, Lord, for your Eucharistic presence in the world. For us you accepted suffering and on the cross you manifested your love for all humanity to the very end. You who know and can do all things, who nourish us on earth, lead your brothers and sisters to the table of heaven to be fellow heirs and guests with your saints forever. Amen.

—St. Pope John Paul II

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

I always make it a point to stand in the back of our church well before Mass begins to greet the people when they come into the church. I absolutely love to say hello and of course, get my one hundred hugs and smiles. I also love the good conversations the greeters and myself share. Last Sunday one of our greeters commented about the tremendous number of young families as well as the young adults who attend Mass faithfully every Sunday. I observe the moms leading their children into Mass as dads run through the parking lot after parking the car to be seated before the beginning of Mass.

Many years ago, Bishop Murry commented about our parish being a "vibrant parish." His comment holds true today. I would like to thank all our young families, and the young adults whose commitment to Jesus Christ and his Church leads our parish down the road to a vibrant future. You inspire us and give all of us "a future full of hope."

Love,
Deacon John

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities." - MATTHEW 25:21

God calls us to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, to use them wisely, and to be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us. God asks us to be generous with all our gifts, especially the one that means the most to you.

Memorial Poinsettias

As we end this liturgical year with our celebration of Christ the King on Nov. 26, 2023, we cannot help but think of the upcoming New Year and our liturgical celebration of The Nativity of Jesus Christ. As in the past, the church building will be very beautifully decorated with trees and lights and poinsettias. Although we will not be in our beloved church, the church of St. Patrick in Hubbard is still alive, strong and worshipping together.

This year you have the opportunity to have a living memorial placed in the sanctuary and/or used in the church through the Christmas Season. Poinsettias placed throughout the church for the Christmas Season will remain in the church until the last Mass of the Christmas Season—the feast of the Baptism of the Lord, celebrated January 8, 2024. After that time you may take your memorial gift home, or to a loved one in a health care facility.

The cost of each memorial poinsettia is $20.00. If you wish to have a poinsettia placed in memory of a loved one, please complete and return the form below along with the correct amount of money in an envelope either through the collection basket or to the Parish House. Or You may use the Christmas Flower envelope in your monthly packet and list your loved one's names or in thanksgiving for your family.

In order to ensure that your memorial is acknowledged in the Christmas bulletin, please return your form by Sunday, December 10, 2023.

Thank you again for enabling us to celebrate the birth of Christ in an atmosphere of beauty and for allowing us to remember parish loved ones during this season.
