AROUND THE TABLE

Very Rev. Michael A. Swierz, Pastor

Thirty-Second Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

CHERISH THEIR CHILDHOODS

His twin girls have just turned 13 — of course, he's known for 13 years that age was coming yet, still, it caught him by surprise. How did those years go by so fast? "There were a lot of things I didn't know before I became a father," he writes. "How to change diapers. How to do TikTok dances. How to realize sooner that it's horribly embarrassing to watch your dad try to do TikTok dances . . . I suspect there are a lot of things new parents don't know, like how your kids are probably going to outgrow believing in fairies, and maybe even some of the magic of Christmas. How spectacularly unprepared you'll be for pretty much . . . everything. "If you're a new parent, you might not know that on more nights than you'll care to admit, you're going to wish they'd just go to sleep already."

Later, you'll be sorry you were in such a rush. Sorry you worked late so often. Sorry you stared at your phone when you should've been sitting on the floor playing make-believe. "You might not know that some of the things you found annoying are what you'll miss most. For years, no matter what errand we were driving to, every playground we passed was met with pleas of 'Can we go?' from the back seat. We stopped often, and also not nearly often enough. There's an awful lot I would give to be asked that again . . . "Here's one that I didn't know: One day you'll put your child down from a piggyback ride, and then you'll never pick her up again."

[From "What I Didn't know About Being a Dad" by Francis Storrs, The Boston Globe Magazine, June 19, 2022.]

Time is a gift that God gives us through which we might come to discover God and the things of God. Too often we fall into the mindset of the five "foolish" bridesmaids of today's Gospel: We carry on convinced that there will always be enough time "later" to make our lives what we want them to be, that there is an unlimited amount of "oil" in our lamps to make it all happen. Today's Gospel calls us to see our lives as a wonderful gift from God, but a gift that is preciously short and fragile. Jesus calls us to realize that now is the time to seek the compassion and peace of God for ourselves and for those we love while our "lamps" are filled with God's wisdom and grace.

During this month of November, we remember the faithful departed: our parishioners, family and friends, praying for their eternal rest and reunion with God in heaven.

Last week our annual All Souls Day Mass was prayed and we welcomed so many families who came back to our parish for this special liturgy. A special thanks goes to Sr. Bernadine and Deacon Michael for all they have done to plan and minister to families preparing for a funeral. The remembrance pages given to the families and the candles are cherished by all. As we continue remembering their souls and their individual stories during this month, may God give comfort and peace to their families and friends.

CANDLES GIVEN IN REMEMBRANCE AT THE ALL SOULS DAY LITURGY

During this month of November we also give thanks to God for all the blessings and prayers answered, for our very life and breath, and His presence with us always. As we prepare to celebrate Thanksgiving, I pray that you rejoice always, pray continually and in all things give thanks to God.

Until we meet around the table, Fr. Mike

Thank you to all who helped and participated in this amazing series. We will look forward to hosting other opportunities and events to keep us engaged in the efforts of the National Eucharistic Revival. May our "Amen" continue to be strengthened and renewed every time we approach the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

EAGLE ESSENTIALS NEEDS OUR HELP

Two years ago, Hubbard Exempted Village School District in collaboration with Hubbard Public Library and other local organizations launched "Eagle Essentials". This is a community-based program that provides essential hygiene products and clothing to students who need assistance. Baskets are set up with these supplies in the school and the library where students can go discreetly to find items they need.

Our summer Vacation Bible School has generously donated essential supplies like hygiene products and clothing to this community outreach. We just received a notice that this outreach is in need of many items, especially gently used clothing including sweatshirts, t-shirts, gym shorts, sweatpants, and leggings. They are also seeking new tennis shoes to provide comfort to the students. If you are able to donate any items you can drop them off at the Hubbard High School main office Monday-Friday between 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monetary donations can also be made by check to Hubbard High School and in the memo include, "Eagle Essentials."

Thank you for your support for our local students in need.

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

Save the date, Tuesday, November 14 from 6-8 PM in rm. 208 in the school for the inaugural meeting of our Veterans/First Responder Ministry. I would like to invite all veterans, first responders, and active and reserve military to attend. Refreshments and hors d'oeuvres will be provided along with a presentation on the overall mission and goals of this very important ministry.

I have personally witnessed the commitment and honor this group of people share with one another. It is a very special calling from God when one chooses to dedicate their life in the service to others. I believe that this bond will only be strengthened in a shared love of Jesus Christ.

Starting a new ministry sometimes can be challenging but I believe that you, the fine men and women who have served our community and country, have faced much greater challenges over the years. So, I offer this challenge to you. Please make every effort to bring your experience, wisdom, and love to this inaugural meeting. Your attendance will grace so many people, not only for that evening, but for many years to come.

Let's Make This Happen!

Love and respect,
Deacon John

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - MATTHEW 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.
